

The Attorney General's Office has previously reported data on small-installment loans. However, due to the very limited data reported by licensees engaged in this type of lending activity, the data received was uninformative and a composite report will not be published.